Re: Instructions for applicants

Effective 10-01-09, Public Act No. 01-130, which revises C.G.S. Section 29-38, mandates a single permit system within the State of Connecticut. The law does not allow the issuance of a local permit to carry pistols or revolvers. Upon application of any person having a bona fide residence within the Town of North Haven, a temporary state permit may be issued.

The applicant shall complete form DPS-799C completely and legibly and such form must be signed in the presence of a Notary Public.

Return the complete application to the North Haven Police Department with the following:

- a. Application form
- b. A copy of your birth certificate
- c. A copy of your driver's license
- d. A COLOR photo of yourself. (Ex. Passport type, not 8x10).
- e. The make of all pistols you have in your possession, including caliber, barrel length and serial number.
- f. A certificate of competency with the pistols or revolvers after completing a course approved by the Commissioner of Public Safety, the Department of Environmental Protection or the National Rifle Association.
- g. Applicable Fees: Submit a Certified Bank Check or Money Order Only. No cash, no personal checks. Submit one check in the amount of $158.25 payable to "Town of North Haven". This fee will cover the Town of North Haven Fee of $70.00 and the State Fingerprinting Fees of $13.25 and $75.00. An additional $70.00 will be collected at the State when you get your Pistol Permit. (DO NOT SUBMIT 3 SEPARATE CHECKS as stated in the attached State instructions).

You must be fingerprinted at the North Haven Police Dept. Fingerprinting hours are available on Tuesdays and Saturdays between the hours of 8:30 a.m.-10:30 a.m. Appointments are not necessary.

You will be notified by telephone regarding the approval of your permit. After the issuance of the Temporary State Permit, you will have to apply for the regular State Pistol Permit within 60 days. If the permit is denied, the applicant will have 90 days to appeal the refusal with the Department of Public Safety Special Licensing and Firearms Unit.

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification<sup>4</sup> by North Haven Police Dept that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- You must be provided, and acknowledge receipt of, an adequate Privacy Act Statement when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement should explain the authority for collecting your information and how your information will be used, retained, and shared.<sup>5</sup>
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.<sup>6</sup>

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.<sup>7</sup>

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks>.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)

FBI Privacy Act Statement

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.
